Class teacher x 1 September 2025 – Permanent

We are looking to recruit 1 enthusiastic class teacher who will be passionate about supporting our pupils in their learning and social development. ECTs are welcome to apply.

Langley is a Special School and caters for children aged 4 – 11. All pupils have an Education, Health and Care Plan. Many of our pupils have a diagnosis of autism and all have needs in terms of cognition and learning, communication and other specific challenges. We adapt our environment and approaches to suit the needs of the pupils.

Could you work in collaboration with the Headteacher and the Governors to support the vision, direction of the school?

You will

- provide excellent classroom provision, resulting in a high level of pupil engagement and progress.
- be dedicated to high-quality teaching and learning.
- embed excellent practice and committed to meeting the learning needs of all pupils.
- be able to demonstrate the character and ambition to work with pupils with SEND.
- be self-motivated with the ability to provide both challenge and support pupils.

We will offer you:

- A positive and innovative learning culture, where wellbeing and workload are effectively managed.
- A strong sense of community and a warm, welcoming workplace.
- Opportunities to further develop through CPD.

If you are ambitious, enjoy a challenge and are a committed team player, this role in our school could be the ideal opportunity for you. We look forward to receiving your application.

Further information (including job description, person specification and application form) can be requested by email from the school recruitment@langley.bham.sch.uk or downloaded from our website. Informal visits and discussions with the Head Teacher are encouraged and welcome. Please contact the office on 0121 675 2929 to arrange.

Closing date: 9am 13th June 2025

Interview date: TBC

This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975, 2013 and 2020. Which means that when applying for certain jobs and activities certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected', so they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account. Further information about filtering offences can be found in the DBS filtering guide.

This post is covered by part 7 of the immigration act (2016) and therefore the ability to speak fluent and spoken English is an essential requirement of this role.

Langley School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS check is required for all successful applicants. An online search will also be carried out as part of due diligence on all short-listed candidates.
