

Acers Curriculum Information – Summer 1

English Key texts/visual literacy: Greek Myths: Daedalus and Icarus, Perseus and Medusa, The Trojan Horse and The Minotaur Main outcomes: - Engage with stories through words, pictures and sensory experiences - Make predictions about what will happen next - Retell key stories orally using narrative language - Talk about the main characters within a well-known story. - Begin to draw inferences from the text and/or the illustrations - Sequence sentences	Maths Number and calculation Place value, visualising amounts using Numicon and number writing Addition and subtraction Number bonds Time Days of the week, months of the year, o'clock times Money Recognising different coins and role play with money, exchanging money for items in a shop	Music Play an instrument with a group along to an instrumental track Maintain a regular slow pulse in balance with the musical track Maintain a regular fast pulse in balance with the musical track Play a short solo on a chosen instrument	Art and Design Explore the work of an ancient Greek artist Explore patterns in art and life Plan and draw their own pattern Use clay tools to create a clay block for printing Explore printing using own clay block to create a repeated pattern
History Explore games and toys played by children in ancient Greece Explore ancient Greek culture – art and music Explore food that would have been eaten by ancient Greeks Explore the ancient Greek Olympics	Science Recognise that we need light to see things Explore and name some sources of light Explore light reflecting from shiny surfaces Explore shadows and how they change  Sun Candle
Swimming and Life Skills Children will be swimming at Kingsbury Leisure centre with qualified instructors and school staff to develop water confidence and swimming skills.	Ancient Greece
PSHE – Explore privacy and passwords Develop understanding of security sharing information with trusted adults RE – Recognise expressions of joy and identify joy in Muslim worship Identify joyful expressions during prayer To recognise and point to beautiful things	Geography – Saints Days St George's Day on 28th April		